Cheryl is one artist who you will not soon forget. Her music borders on symphonic but rests in the realm of pop. With the voice of an angel, Cheryl has the gift of touching you with her lyric and melody on some amazing songs. She has written in three languages; English, Spanish and French and sounds like she was born to them. I have found in following her career that she is one of those songwriters that gets adopted wherever she performs. She has worked in venues, festivals and concert halls in the states and Canada; receives airplay worldwide and even sung at sporting events. She is a stage performer, radio artist and model. I would venture to say that Cheryl Nye is a renaissance woman of the first order and it is an honor to have her as a guest on the show.

“Cheryl Nye’s new Album “Eyes of a Stranger” is like Cupid's arrow striking ones heart to fulfill a prophecy of love, life, light, peace and serenity. The emotional experiences and instrumentation of sound are beyond words, they can be described as heavenly, haunting, melodic and very soothing. The beautiful repertoire of sounds offers a mix of very diverse instrumentals that hook you with their Celtic, and Spanish and orchestrated beats along with Cheryl's beautiful vocals. The lyrics powerful, beautiful, they take on a life of their own and to the listener they are personal as they can relate them to relationships they experience in life. Tune in and listen for more.”

Sweet, smooth and stylish. Did I forget anything? Well, Cheryl Nye, who is a multi-lingual vocalist and pianist from Montreal, performs with grace and style, with songs she has composed (music and lyrics) herself. She comes from a vocal and piano course curriculum in college and learned her lessons well, but her "craft work" that is the hallmark of any true songwriter is covered like a veneer by a flowing interpretive style. She is very active performing in Quebec but it would be no surprise to me if she crosses the border to share her vast talent and beauty with American audiences. As she climbs up the Pop mountain, rated #1 in the Montreal Pop polls, I would expect a smart promoter first would bring her to audiences in New York, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, London, Paris and Sydney to showcase her immense stage presence and silky, sultry voice!
